

Used to this by camila cabello

No, I never liked San Francisco
Never thought it was nothing special
'Til you kissed me there
No, I never liked windy cities
But I think maybe when you're with me
I like everywhere

(Oh) it's the strangest feeling
Midnight, I'm not leaving
No, for once, I think I'll stay (oh)
I say your name, just listen
Doesn't it sound different?
Never whispered it this way

It's gonna take me a minute
But I could get used to this
The feeling of your fingertips
The feeling of another kiss
It's gonna take me a minute (oh)
But I could get used to this (oh)
Like every tattoo on your skin
I'm memorizing every inch
I could get used to this (oh, oh, oh, oh)
I could get used to this
Definitely

No, I never did like tequila
But there's somethin' 'bout when I see ya
Think I need a drink
And the calluses on your fingers
I admired them from a distance

Now they're on my cheek

Oh, I've known you forever

Now I know you better

Let's just get carried away, oh

And it bears repeating

Now my heart's bleeding

When you tell me that you'll stay

It's gonna take me a minute

But I could get used to this

The feeling of your fingertips

The feeling of another kiss

It's gonna take me a minute

But I could get used to this

Like every tattoo on your skin

I'm memorizing every inch

I could get used to this (oh, oh, oh, oh)

I could get used to this (oh, stay, stay, stay, stay)

I could get used to this (oh, oh, oh, oh)

I could get used to this (oh)

Definitely

No, I never liked San Francisco

Never thought it was nothing special

'Til you kissed me there

Oh, it's gonna take me a minute

But I could get used to this

The feeling of your fingertips

The feeling of another kiss (the feeling of another kiss)

It's gonna take me a minute

But I could get used to this

Like every tattoo on your skin (on your skin)

I'm memorizing every inch

I could get used to this

I feel it all

I could get used to this

Your kisses, oh

I'll risk it all

Seventeen when we started to fall

But we lost it all

And I just can't believe it all

Definitely
