

Somebody Told Me by Charlie Puth

I was just with you on your birthday
And I met your whole family
But on the way home
You kinda look at your phone
Couldn't help here ask her a step babe
And the way you said nobody
Under the rumors, they are more than just rumors

Maybe I should have noticed
You were just having love
Maybe I should have noticed
That I'm not the only one

Somebody told me that you
Got another love and you've been giving into
Can't believe I believed you
You are my girl

Somebody saw you with him
Now you're tryna told me that he's only a friend
Can't believe I believed it
You are my girl
Oh, oh
Oh, oh

Maybe if they're making excuses
And the stories ain't adding up
But I just got blind, when you look into my eyes
Everytime that I tried to confront you
There's some ways that you gotta run to
Oh warning signs, they are more than just warning signs

Maybe I should have noticed
You were just having fun
Maybe I should have noticed
That I'm not the only one

Cuz somebody told me that you
Got another love and you've been giving into
Can't believe I believed you
You are my girl

Somebody saw you with him
Now you're tryna told me that he's only a friend
Can't believe I believed it
You are my girl

Oh, oh

Oh, oh

You are my girl

Maybe I should have noticed
You were just having love
Maybe I should have noticed
That I'm not the only one (you are my girl)

Yeah

Maybe I should have noticed
That I'm not the only one

Somebody told me that you
Got another love and you've been giving into
Can't believe I believed you (believed you)
You are my girl

Somebody saw you with him
Now you're tryna told me that he's only a friend
Can't believe I believed it (-lieved it)

You are my girl
Cause you are my-
Ay, you are my girl

Maybe I should have noticed
You were just having love
Maybe I should have noticed
That I'm not the only one

You are my girl
